JANUARY CHALLENGES

I got a new starfish stamp that I cannot wait to use. Read a book about the ocean, and I will stamp a big starfish in your passport!

Maine is a great place to live! There are a lot of books that are about Maine Or that take place here. Read either one and I will stamp your passport!

You know I love sports! There are many books about sports and athletes. Read one of these and I will stamp your passport!

It sure is cold outside! Warm up by reading a great book—about winter! Read a book about winter or snow and I will stamp your passport.

Here's an interesting reading challenge: read a book about math! We have a lot of math books in our library. Read one and I will stamp your passport.

Peru is our focus country for this month. The Vine Street School staff issues a challenge for students to “virtually visit” Peru by reading a book about that country. See Mrs. Silk for your passport stamp.

Reading Challenge Response Sheet

Grades 2-3

Congratulations on completing the first half of your challenge—you have read one of the books suggested by member. The second part of the challenge is just as important. We are asking you to write about your reading. It is important that whenever you write you give your best effort. Please complete this form and write at least 2-3 sentences about why you liked/or did not like the book.
