

April Challenges

Spring is finally here! Read about this season, and I will stamp your Passport!

This month we celebrate being kind. Read a book that tells about someone being kind, then come tell me about it so I can stamp your passport.

I have a special challenge for you. Read a book about an animal who shows kindness, and I will stamp your passport.

Third graders are studying fairy tales this month. Read a fairy tale, and I will stamp your passport.

There are so many great books that tell about real things. Read a nonfiction book this month, and I will stamp your passport.

Our focus country this month is Spain. Read a book about Spain and Mrs. Silk will stamp your passport.
